MANUAL
AndroCOMMANDER 1.1a Free License

To work with the program, you must install it on both devices. After, from the remote device it is necessary to send SMS to the administrator's phone with the text "Admin". After sending and receiving this command, the program will fix the roles of "Admin and Remote" to the devices used and they will be ready for interaction. All control commands are carried out via SMS sending.

COMMANDS FOR REMOTE ADMINISTRATION OF MOBILE DEVICES

Execution command	Result
sendSMS.+49309876543.text message	Command will send SMS messages "text message" to number +49309876543
getSMS	The administrator's phone will receive a private link to the resource storing the file, which contains all the contacts (the file is automatically updated with the new request).
getGPS	The administrator's phone will receive an SMS message with the GPS coordinates of the remote device.
getContact	The administrator's phone will receive a private link to the resource storing the file, which contains all the contacts (the file is automatically updated with the new request).
getPhoto	The administrator's phone will receive a private link to the resource that stores the photo from all available cameras (photos are automatically updated with a new request).
getMicrofone.5	The administrator's phone will receive a private link to the resource that stores 5 minutes of audio recording from the microphone (the recording is automatically updated with a new request).
get1VideoF.10	The administrator's phone will receive a private link to the resource, which stores 10 minutes of audio and video recording from the front camera. (the record is automatically updated when a new request is made).
get1VideoB.10	The administrator's phone will receive a private link to the resource, which stores 10 minutes of audio and video recording from the back camera. (the record is automatically updated when a new request is made).